UBS Year Ahead 2024: A new world (21 November)

CIO Livestream

Join us live on 21 November at 10am CT, as Chief Investment Officer Mark Haefele and colleagues around the world discuss "Year Ahead 2024: A new world".

Since the COVID pandemic of 2020, we've entered a new world: One defined by economic, social and political uncertainty—but also profound technological change.

2023 was a historic year for markets. Bond yields reached their highest level in more than 15 years. The first trillion-dollar artificial intelligence company was crowned. And the US economy powered ahead, confounding expectations. What can we expect in the year and decade ahead?
